

Announcement for Tuesday, October 29, 2024

We would like to acknowledge the traditional territory of the Tsawwassen and Musqueam First Nations and all of the Coast Salish peoples who have been stewards of this land since time immemorial. We offer respect to the elders who have gone before us, the indigenous peoples here today and all of us on the journey of Reconciliation. Enjoy this beautiful land where we live, play and learn and have we hope your week is going well.

Student Council theme week

Hey Seahawks!

It's spirit week

Today - Fun accessory day

Wednesday - Anything but a backpack day

Thursday - Best costumes for Halloween

Let's see your spirit Seahawks!

"Boo" Bags Fundraiser

"Hi Seaquam! Boo baskets are a must for the season of fall, and if you haven't gotten one yet, The Hot Potato Initiative has got you covered! Come to the Caf at lunch or after school today, tomorrow or Thursday to purchase your own Seaquam spin off version called boo bags! They're filled with delicious candies and goodies for you and your boo to enjoy!"

Haunted Hallway

Mwahahahahah...It's Halloween week, and the Evil Circus has come to town...at Seaquam Theatre! Get your first spook of the week after school today from 3:00pm-5:00pm. It's open to the public, so bring your friends and family! $5 tickets in the caf at lunch, and $7 at the door. Don't miss out on the best Halloween event of the year. The clowns are waiting...

Music Collaboration Concert

The Music Department will be kicking off the concert season with a Collaboration Concert on Wednesday, October 30th. This will be an exciting concert as we invite two guest ensembles to perform in our Seaquam Theatre.

The concert begins at 7:00pm and will feature our whole Music program: Concert Band, Jazz Band, Concert Choir, and Wind Ensemble along with our guest ensembles: Delta Secondary Gr. 10 Band and Fraser Valley Wind Ensemble.

Admission is by donation and goes towards the Music Program. We invite you all to watch the concert. Doors will open at 6:30 pm.

Looking forward to seeing everyone.
