

Happy Halloween

Announcement for Thursday, October 31, 2024

We would like to acknowledge the traditional territory of the Tsawwassen and Musqueam First Nations and all of the Coast Salish peoples who have been stewards of this land since time immemorial. We offer respect to the elders who have gone before us, the indigenous peoples here today and all of us on the journey of Reconciliation. Have a wonderful weekend on this beautiful land where we live, play and learn.

"Hello Seaquam Seahawks!

The Multicultural club is inviting you to a Diwali celebration on Friday November 1st. The celebration will take place in the cafeteria during lunch time. Feel free to dress in your Diwali best! Let's all come together to celebrate the festival of lights and spread joy and kindness to all those around us.

Attention all swim team members: Please meet in the gym on Monday, November 4th at lunch for your team photo. Wear your Seaquam gear!

Seahawks, if you're wearing a Halloween or Diwali outfit today, come strut the runway for candy in the cafeteria. Red Carpet will start at 11:45!

Seaquam Robotics is hosting a tournament this Saturday in the gym. Come show your support and cheer on our robotics teams! We are also still looking for volunteers. For anyone who already signed up or who would like to volunteer at our tournament, we will have a meeting on Friday at lunch in the robotics lab, room 1540. All volunteers please attend.

The Cafeteria is featuring a spooky Halloween themed lunch today! We have Mummy Dogs and witches blood, monster burgers and Jack-o'lantern quesadillas for hot items. There are iced sugar cookies cut into cats, pumpkins and ghosts, halloween cupcakes and grave yard cups! See you there!
